Three-Town Community Council Urged

A community council should be formed among Moraga, Lafayette and Orinda, rather than individual incorporation groups, Harry L. Morrison Jr., executive director of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association recommended this week.

Morrison presented his views to the Orinda Association Board meeting at Orinda School library Monday night.

Morrison said: "Instead of immediately starting incorporation studies and movements within the individual communities of Moraga, Orinda and Lafayette, I would suggest the formation of a community council representing all of these districts which would accomplish the following:

"1. A unified policy in dealing with the Board of Supervisors and private agencies.

"2. Pursue studies for the organization of services for the entire area represented.

"3. HAVE A UNIFIED force before the County Planning Commission.

"4. Work toward organizing services on such a level that the burden on the individual taxpayer could be reduced to a minimum."

Morrison stressed that in no way do these remarks represent the directors, committees, or members of the Taxpayers' Association, "but only myself as a student of the affairs of local government."

"The most important problem I see before the citizen taxpayers of the Orinda-Moraga-Lafayette region is whether they will organize for the administration of their public services into small units or into an area-wide agency," he said.

"THE SIMILARITY of the problems and needs of the residents and businessmen of this area would seem to indicate that thinking should be directed toward organizing the area as an all-inclusive community, instead of the smaller identities of Lafayette, Moraga and Orinda.

"Indeed, the tendency so far has been in the opposite direction with neighborhoods voicing a desire for independent organization. Such a tendency can lead into an anarchy of government instead of a responsible and adequate government.

"The population, way of life, ethic and economic similarity of the region . . . would seem to indicate a need for unity, instead of the irresponsible disunity which appears to exist at present.

"THESE SIMILARITIES call for a unity of the policy and administrative organs providing public service for the region.

"A cursory study of the financial implications of separate organization of this basically single community reveals that no separate unit could establish even the minimum level of municipal service without straining the resources of the residential taxpayer to the utmost.

"The experience of the cities in San Mateo County and of the East Bay Area demonstrates the problems the taxpayers face when an attempt is made to organize cities without an adequate tax base.

"LAST, BUT BY NO MEANS least important, is the effect which policies made in any portion of this similar region would have on the whole.

"The implications which a heavy industrial develop-

MUCH MORE THAN CLOWNING is the motive of these dads. They're getting into the proper mood for the Orinda Fathers' March on Polio Tuesday night. Fathers Ready to March Against Polio Tuesday

The Orinda hills will be alive with marching fathers Tuesday night between 7 and 8 p.m. when the Fathers March on Polio gets underway.

Lighted porchlights will welcome the fathers who will canvass every home in the community in an effort to better last year's record.

Fathers will start at 7 p.m. at the signal of blowing auto horns and the complete march must be completed within an hour.

DONATIONS WILL be collected at Orinda School, according to area chairman Joseph L. Sheaff. The Sheriff's Office has agreed to have deputies present to guard the funds.

Bank officials are cooperating and the money will be counted and deposited the same evening.

"We would like the help and cooperation of everyone," said Ernest Rahmeyer, Fathers March chairman. "If any of you are going out for the evening, please leave your contribution in an envelope with your neighbor," he said.

MORE THAN 500 fathers, most of whom participated last year, will canvass the 2700 homes.

In other areas mothers conduct the campaign, but the rugged terrain of Orinda makes it difficult for the women, so fathers have agreed to take over.

Last year each father wore a tag stating "Just for tonight I am a mother."

RAHMEYER INDICATED that all fathers would be suitably identified this year, also.

He stressed the need for additional contributions this year in order to provide an increased supply of gamma globulin and to finance the tests of the new anti-polio vaccine which will be given to more than 500,000 second grade students throughout the country.

Thomas Rezoning Hearing Delay to Feb. 23 Expected

Public hearing on the application of Dr. Wilbert F. Thomas for rezoning of the southeast corner of Moraga Highway and Northwood Drive to allow construction of a Shell service station will probably be continued to February 23, Associate County Planner George Brenner said this week.

The hearing has been scheduled for 9 p. m. next Tuesday. However, Brenner said that Dr. Thomas' attorney had phoned the commission office asking for delay because Dr. Thomas will be out of the state for a couple of weeks.

The matter was discussed at last Tuesday night's commission meeting and, according to Brenner, the commissioners indicated that they will open the hearing on the scheduled date and then continue it to February 23.

Dr. Thomas, an Oakland dentist living in Piedmont, owns the west half of Lot 42 in Moraga Estates, at the southeast corner of Moraga Highway and Northwood Drive. He is requesting that it be rezoned from Residential - Agricultural to Retail Business.

According to Brenner, the applicant seeks the rezoning so that a new Shell station at the northeast corner of the Crossroads will soon be removed because of Interchange construction.

Center's Future Awaits Decision On City – Miles

"We definitely feel that the question of Orinda incorporation has to be solved before a decision can be reached on what to do with the Community Center property," Chairman Kirk Miles of the Orinda Association's Community Center committee told association directors Monday night.

"If the community incorporates in the next few years, we will need city offices," Miles pointed out. "These could very well be located on the present community property back of Orinda School.

"If there will be no incorporation, the land could be used otherwise. We have found the greatest interest expressed in possibility of a library building. Also, there is a general desire for recreation facilities for young people. And there is strong sentiment for a general purpose building which could be used for clubs and meetings."

Miles' remarks were made during discussion of his committee's report at the monthly board meeting in Orinda School library. (See separate story on report.)

STRESSING THAT "recreation and community facilities should be considered for all of Orinda — not just for the 'Community Center' property," the report suggested renaming the committee the "Park and Recreation Committee."

However, because of the possibility of city offices, directors changed the name to Civic Center, Park and Recreation Committee. This met with approval of Miles and R. D. Harrison of his committee, who was also present. R. C. Anthonisen, the third members of the committee, was unable to attend.

President Zach Montgomery reappointed Miles committee chairman for 1954 and named Harrison co-chairman.

IN EMPHASIZING inadvisability of construction of facilities or of undertaking a drive for construction funds prior to "assurance of a financially sound plan of operation," Miles cited two ill-fated ventures where that was done — Mt. Eden and Castro Valley.

"We talked with citizens in Mt. Eden and Castro Valley," Miles reported. "These communities had raised money for the construction but were unable to operate the facilities.

"Results were that the Mt. Eden community property had to be sold and the Hayward Recreation District took over the Castro Valley project."

Recreation District Unless Community Incorporates Suggested by Committee

Need of planning recreation facilities for "all of Orinda" and postponement of choice of method of operation until June are stressed in the report of the Community Center Committee to the Orinda Association Board of Directors.

Formation of a recreation district unless community decision for incorporation is made by June is recommended by the committee.

Submitted by Chairman Kirk Miles and committee members R. D. Harrison and R. C. Anthonisen, the report, read and discussed Monday night at the board meeting in Orinda School library, states:

"MINDFUL OF THE fact that the Orinda Association now owns outright 7½ acres of land for Community Center purposes from which no benefit is being received, your committee has been actively studying the question of the Community Center from two angles:

"1. How can we organize, pay for and operate recreation and community facilities?

"2. What such facilities does Orinda now need?

"Your committee has, of course, had the benefit of all the earlier work and drawings of previous committees.

"IT HAS ALSO, during the year, had discussions with representatives of the following organizations:

"State of California Recreation Commission.

"Oakland Recreation Department.

"Hayward Park, Recreation and Parkway District.

"Piedmont Recreation Department.

"Pleasant Hill Park, Recreation and Parkway District.

"Walnut Creek Recreation Department.

"Concord Recreation Department.

"Richmond Rod and Gun Club.

"After analysis of all the information which has been obtained, your committee makes the following recommendations:

"1. RECREATION and community facilities should be considered for all of Orinda—not just for the 'Community Center' property.

"To emphasize this we suggest that the name of the committee be changed to 'Park and Recreation Committee.' Planning for other recreation centers and parks should be integrated with planning for the 'Community Center' property.

"2. IT IS INADVISABLE to attempt to build recreation and community facilities unless a continuing source of operation income is forthcoming from taxation.

"Knowing Orinda's record for supporting worthwhile projects, we have no doubt that money could be raised to build facilities on the 'Community Center' property.

"We believe this should not be undertaken until there is assurance of a financially sound plan for operation. These recreation facilities of which the committee has knowledge, that have tried to operate otherwise have failed.

"3. TAX SUPPORTED operation can be accomplished either by incorporation of Orinda or by the formation of a recreation district.

"Since the desirability of incorporation is now under active study by the association, we recommend that the choice of method be held in abeyance until June.

"If it is then decided not to incorporate, we recommend that steps be taken to form a recreation district.

"4. WHEN A PLAN for the operation of facilities is decided upon, it is recommended that a drive for funds for construction be undertaken.

"It would be undesirable to delay construction until such time as funds could be raised by the moderate taxes contemplated.

"5. CONSIDERABLE STUDY has been goven to the choice of facilities Orinda now needs.

"Since the choice of facilities depends to some extent on whether Orinda chooses to incorporate, it is recommended that detailed study await this decision.

"Cognizance should be taken of those public facilities existing and contemplated, so as to avoid duplication and provide the most integrated facilities for Orinda."

Demos to Hear Professor Talk

Assistant Professor Harold Winkler of the University of California Political Science Department will address the Orinda Democrats Wednesday in the Livingston Room of the Orinda Community Church at 8 p.m.

He will speak on "Bi-Partisanship in Politics." Invitations have been issued to all Democratic clubs in the Bay Area and everyone is invited to attend.

A question and answer period will be held. Dr. Fred Tarp, chairman, will preside. Officers will be elected in March.

Rotarians to Hear Victor Sauer Speak

County Road Commissioner Victor W. Sauer will speak to the Orinda Rotary Club Wednesday noon at the Willows on "The Plans and Problems of Building and Maintaining our County Roads."

This week Rotarians saw a Pan American Airways film, "Wings to Hawaii" under the chairmanship of Bill Worden of the Worden Travel Agency.

A report was given on the recent Reno trip which was attended by 405 people representing 17 East Bay Rotary Clubs.

Directors Refer Morrison Idea To Committee

Directors of the Orinda Association Monday night referred Harry Morrison's suggestion of an Orinda-Lafayette-Moraga community council to the association's incorporation study committee, headed by Frank Cayting.

(See separate story on Morrison's recommendation.)

Prior to this action, voted unanimously upon motion by Harold Neeland, seconded by Robert Boyle, President Zach Montgomery commented:

"I THINK WE should pass these suggestions along to our incorporation study committee, so that it can decide whether to go ahead with a local study. We still want an answer on probable incorporation costs and income by June or July."

Morrison, executive director of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association, told the association board at Orinda School library:

"It would seem to be a good idea for you to talk with the Lafayette Improvement Association, the Utah Construction Company and other groups in this valley, in an effort to form some sort of area-wide citizens' group.

"I SEE NO REASON why an Orinda incorporation study and the formation of an area-wide community council couldn't run concurrently; there would be no conflict between them."

Kirk Miles recalled that the Lafayette incorporation study committee had considered possibility of joint Lafayette-Orinda incorporation and that Ernest Spiegl had been Orinda Association observer at sessions of the committee, a group of the Lafayette Improvement Association.

BOONE ROBINSON remarked, "I know that W. H. Somerton, president of the Lafayette Improvement Association, would be interested in cooperating in any joint effort."

"I am not at this time proposing an Orinda-Lafayette-Moraga city—I'm proposing a representative citizens' group or council," Morrison explained. He added:

"But possibility of such a city would be worthy of study."

Brunk to Head Orinda Oaks

New officers, plans and incorporation were on the agenda of the Orinda Oaks Association when it met January 19 at the home of General and Mrs. William E. Lynd, 41 Claremont Avenue.

William P. Wilke, outgoing president, presided and turned the gavel over to newly elected president W. O. Brunk. Duane Neuenschwander was named vice president, Mrs. Eve Gentry secretary and B. F. Syslo treasurer.

Hal Neeland reported on the survey now being conducted by the Orinda Association regarding incorporation.

The general feeling was that incorporation at this time is not necessary, that it would endanger "our country atmosphere" and would probably increase taxes.

Coffee and refreshments were served by General and Mrs. Lynd.

Action Due Next Month for Study On Incorporation

Recommendation on procedure for an Orinda incorporation study will be made next month, Tevis Thompson of the Orinda Association's incorporation study committee told the organization's board at Orinda School library Monday night.

President Zach Montgomery said the board would probably vote on the recommendation at its February 15 meeting.

"At the committee's last meeting January 20 we went over bids for a study," Thompson said. "They range from $350 to $1800."

Reporting for Committee Chairman Frank Cayting, Thompson listed proposals as including: Coro Foundation, with use of its interns, $450; Coro Foundation, with study to be made by its associates, $1000; Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association, $1000; Louis J. Kroeger and Associates, $1800.

"THE PROPOSALS were not complete," Thompson said. "But all these groups offered to meet with us and tell us more. However, we thought it would be rather unfair to pursue this further without having some idea of what the Board of Directors would authorize us to spend."

Montgomery said he thought the firm should be selected first, and then, if necessary, the local business people and the various neighborhood associations could be asked to contribute toward the cost.

"WE EXPECT A report to tell us," Montgomery observed, "what the costs of incorporation would be; what the revenue, including rebates from the state, would be, and what our biggest problems as a city would be.

"And we hope it will give us an idea on whether or not Orinda should incorporate."

REGARDING THE suggestion of Harry Morrison Jr., executive director of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association, that steps be taken toward formation of an area-wide community council, with the view toward possible establishment of an Orinda-Lafayette-Moraga city, Thompson said:

"That was discussed at our committee meeting last week. Since the Coro Foundation has already made its report on Lafayette incorporation, it was felt that our report could very well be correlated to the Lafayette Report.

"In that way the two could be combined in one study."

Park Pool Sends Member Queries

The Orinda Park Pool has announced that 1954 membership applications have been mailed to all persons who were members in 1953. These applications must be returned by February 28.

The capacity of the pool is limited. If any memberships remain unfilled after February 28 an announcement will be made in The SUN as to the procedure to be followed to apply for such memberships.

Four Nabbed in Attempted Burglary

Three juveniles and a man of 22 were picked up in Orinda early Tuesday morning after they attempted to break into a soft drink machine outside Orinda Motors, 63 Orinda Highway.

Night man Harvey Smith heard the attempted theft at 1:15 a.m., took the license number of the battered 1938 Ford the men were driving and called the Sheriff's Office.

The four could not be located immediately.

However, the car was spotted again at 4:45 a.m. and two of the individuals were picked up after a chase which ended in a blind street on the west side of Orinda Village, with a wheel sheared off the battered Ford.

Two of the group were picked up immediately, the other two later.

Leader was Arthur Clyde Van Meter, 22, of San Pablo, who is being held by the San Pablo Police Department for investigation of several thefts and burglaries in that area.

The three juveniles, aged 16, 16 and 18, are being held at Juvenile Hall. All are from San Pablo.

School Board To Take Stand on Road Relocation

Orinda School District trustees are expected to formulate an official expression of opinion on relocation of San Pablo Dam Road when they meet at Orinda School Monday night, Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff stated this week.

"The board will probably discuss the problem of San Pablo Dam Road relocation and is expected to take official action," Sheaff said.

"Personally, I am in favor of relocation behind the Village and the creek, from El Toyonal to where the Interchange ramp will end, as proposed by Orinda representatives last week.

"With the road scheduled to be widened to four lanes, I feel it is important to have it removed from in front of school property."

School Bonds Get 12-1 Approval in Record Turnout

In the largest turnout ever made for an Orinda School District election, voters Tuesday overwhelmingly approved school financing measures totaling $1,450,000.

The unofficial tally, according to Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff, showed:

On Proposition 1 — issuance of $750,000 in bonds:
Yes — 1277.
No — 111.
On Proposition 2 — authorization to borrow up to $700,000 from the state:
Yes — 1249.
No — 119.

The 1406 voters who cast their ballots were almost 27 per cent of the 5274 registered voters in the school district.

Two absentee ballots remain to be counted, Sheaff said. These will be tallied when the Orinda School Board officially canvasses the vote at 6 p. m. next Tuesday at Orinda School.

PASSAGE of the state aid proposal assures purchase of the 12.16-acre Pine Grove upper grade school site from East Bay Municipal Utility District and construction of the school.

Passage of the bond issue proposal clears the way for other expansion, plans for which include 16 more classrooms at Sleepy Hollow School, 16 more classrooms at Del Rey School, an all-purpose room at each of these schools, adequate playground facilities at both these schools and purchase of possibly two additional school sites.

WORKING DRAWINGS for additions to Sleepy Hollow School are being made by Architect Jack Buchter, Sheaff said. Construction of six or eight new classrooms at that school is anticipated for the next fiscal year, the superintendent added.

"The district board will probably discuss this at its regular meeting Monday night," Sheaff stated. This session will be held at Orinda School at 8 o'clock.

Sheaff said he and the trustees appreciate the community's strong support for the bond proposals.

Each of the two propositions required two-thirds approval of all votes cast in order to pass. The bond issue was approved by an almost 12 to 1 majority; the state aid proposal, by almost 11 to 1.

VOTING at the two polling places was as follows:

Orinda School (Special Precinct 1) — Bond issue: Yes, 703; no, 51. State aid: Yes, 687; no, 54.

Glorietta School (Special Precinct 2) — Bond issue: Yes, 574; no, 60. State aid: Yes, 562; no, 65.

Pine Grove Hearing Tuesday but Road Relocation Termed Key Initial Step

Opposition to Retail Business rezoning of the Pine Grove until definite plans have been made by the county for relocation of San Pablo Dam Road behind the Village and the creek was voiced by the Orinda Association Board at Orinda School library Monday night.

Although no vote was taken on the matter, the directors, faced with a County Planning Commission hearing at 8:30 p. m. next Tuesday on East Bay Municipal Utility District's rezoning application, freely expressed this view.

Boone Robinson of the association's Orinda Planning Committee agreed with the general attitude but pointed out that at the hearing Tuesday night the committee plans to request a two-week delay.

"OUR PROPOSAL is to present all the facts available, with a request for a two-week delay, and to ask the county planning staff to work with us and EBMUD in that interim," Robinson said.

Robinson reported that an approximate 90 per cent return had been scored by early this week with the questionnaires distributed in a scientific public opinion sampling by the Orinda Planning Committee and the Orinda Chamber of Commerce. Last Tuesday night was the deadline for returns.

ROBINSON ADDED that Karl Schevill, in charge of the questionnaire project, was about three-fourths through with tabulation of answers and had drawn the following "unofficial conclusions":

"1. A very small percentage of shopping is now done in the Village.

"2. The answers tend to indicate inadequate shopping facilities. There appears to be a demand for a supermarket, adequate parking, paving, sidewalks.

"3. MOST PEOPLE moved here to enjoy country living.

"4. There is considerable interest in future community buildings, a library and a medical-dental building.

"5. There is strong opposition to the idea of the type of business development which would draw large numbers of people from outside Orinda, for trade.

"6. There is very strong opposition to multiple dwellings."

Sauer Asked To Tell Joint Meet About Relocation

County Road Commissioner Victor W. Sauer has been asked by the Orinda Association Board to attend a joint board-Civic Affairs Committee meeting the night of February 15 at Orinda School and discuss plans for relocation of San Pablo Dam Road.

At the board meeting Monday night, President Zach Montgomery instructed Secretary Jean Henderson to write Sauer, inviting him to the February 15 meeting.

The board ordinarily meets the fourth Monday of each month. But February 22 is Washington's birthday, a legal holiday, so next month's session will be held jointly with the Civic Affairs Committee on Civic Affair's regular meeting night.

Boy Hit as Car Skids on Ice

Peter Venturini, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Segio Venturini, 1954 Moraga Highway, was injured Monday when a car skidded on an icy section of the road and grazed him.

Peter was crossing Moraga Highway near the intersection of Brookside Road when he was hit. Water standing on the highway had frozen during the night.

The car skidded into an embankment and hit a utility pole, in addition, to brushing the boy. He was waiting for a school bus.

Peter, who was knocked down, was shaken up and received facial cuts. He was held at Alta Bates Hospital in Berkeley for examination and observation.

Verdict by Jury Clears Fred Wood

A jury verdict in favor of the defendant Tuesday in Superior Judge Hugh Donovan's court in Martinez ended an 11-day trial in which Paul Vashell sought $41,000 in damages from realtor Fred T. Wood for alleged fraud in sale of two lots to Vashell.

After deliberating two and a half hours, the jury returned a verdict that there had been no fraud. Vashell was ordered to pay the court costs.

VASHELL CHARGED that when Fred T. Wood, Inc., sold him two lots on Snow Court in Lost Valley in July, 1951, Wood covered a slide area so as to conceal it.

As a result, the two homes Vashell built there that fall suffered extensive damage in the heavy rainstorms of the 1951-52 winter, Vashell claimed. Vashell later moved the houses to the Moraga Del Rey section.

THE ALLEGATIONS were denied by Wood on the witness stand. Wood declared that Vashell and his builder, Wilbur Johnson, did not provide proper drainage from the homes to the creek 20 feet below.

Wood was represented by Attorney James Cox of the law firm of Tinning and DeLap. Vashell was represented by Attorneys Francis Healey and John Alexander.

MORE THAN 30 witnesses testified, 12 of them for the defense.

Dr. N. L. Taliaferro, University of California geologist, testified for the defense that no slide area had existed at the lots in question.

Chester Marliave, Berkeley geologist, testified for the plaintiff that there had been a slide area at the two lots.

Hearing Tuesday On Pine Grove

consultant, was scheduled for last night at Robinson's home, as this issue of The SUN was going to press.

SAN PABLO DAM ROAD relocation discussion was highlighted by the following remarks:

Director George Hauerken: "Until such time as that road is relocated, you can't properly plan. Why rush by EBMUD?"

Lindsey Spight, a visitor: "I personally am violently opposed to any rezoning until San Pablo Dam Road is relocated. A two-week delay isn't going to suffice. There is very strong community sentiment that there should be no rezoning until relocation of the road."

Robinson displayed several tentative sketch plans drawn up by Violich regarding the Pine Grove, San Pablo Dam Road and the EBMUD property on the west side of the road.

ONE SHOWED ESSENTIALLY the same plan as was proposed by Orindans at last week's conference with County Road Commissioner Victor W. Sauer — relocation of San Pablo Dam Road behind the Village and the Creek, from around El Toyonal to where the Interchange ramp will end.

The present road between those points would serve to connect accesses to the relocated road, he explained.

It did not include any business area in the Pine Grove. Instead, a "future elementary school" site occupied the approximate space of the 10 acres which EBMUD wants to have rezoned for a shopping center, and the present Orinda School site was envisioned as being converted to Community Center use.

ROBINSON REPORTED that EBMUD was "very adamant" as to its plans for rezoning of the 10-acre spot in the Pine Grove.

The association board approved a bill from Violich to the Orinda Planning Committee for $151.37 for recent services. The Planning Committee is authorized to spend up to $400 for this purpose.

Planning Committee-EBMUD negotiations have been going on, Robinson said, and although he reported "no progress" in recent talks, he expressed hope that progress would be made prior to next Tuesday night's scheduled hearing.

PRESIDENT Zach Montgomery asked if "another caravan to Martinez was being planned for next Tuesday night.

Robinson replied that the Planning Committee felt this was not necessary — that it would be best to have the committee members, Montgomery and representatives of interested groups, including some of the larger home owner associations, at the Planning Commission session.

He said that Violich will make a presentation at the hearing.

'I' House Tour

Mrs. Louise Little's Girl Scout Troop 146 is working for badges in Arts and Crafts and International Relations for their Second Class Rank.

Mrs. Dorothy Bargones and Mrs. Adele Gloy assisted with the transportation.

ENRICO ZUEGG, a graduate student from Italy, took the group through International House, showed them the Television room and commented on the difference between our program and those in Italy. They all had lunch in the International lunchroom.

The group then went to the Art gallery on the campus where they saw some 600 objects chosen from the Phoebe Hearst Collection of Egyptian Antiquities collected by George Reisner, an Egyptologist chosen by Mrs. Hearst to take an expedition to Egypt and bring back these objects of art.

Heart Helpers

January 22 Troop 184 went to Walnut Creek to help at the Heart Association. The girls helped fold letters that will be sent throughout Contra Costa County. They enjoyed it so much, they are going to return to help again on January 29th.

A nice surprise was added when they were served refreshments of ice cream and cookies. Those attending were Cathy Oliphant, Susan Nicolaysen, Susan Pollaczek, Carol Goldsmith, Gayle Teasdel, Marian Neff, Jane White and Kathy Beconcini, accompanied by co-leader Mrs. Robert Beconcini and Mrs. Marian Neff. Linda Lindsay, Linda Kooreman, Susan Nattress and Susan Richards could not attend because of illness.

Trip to Snow

Grand Jury to Continue Investigation Of Illegal Multiple-Play Pin-Balls

The Grand Jury will continue its investigation of illegal multiple-play pinball machines, but the next steps have not been decided.

Tuesday night the Grand Jury Law Enforcement Committee reported. Yesterday Arthur Granshaw, when asked what happened, said, "I really can't make any comment at this time."

When asked what further investigation is planned he answered, "Well, the real problem is one that I think you have already stated in your newspaper."

"LAST WEEK The SUN pointed out that cases testing the legality of the machines may be made as a result of a recent raid by Sheriff's deputies in which 11 of the machines were confiscated.

Such a test case would arise if any of the owners of the machines files suit to recover them. Such a suit must be filed within 30 days after the machines are picked up or they will be destroyed.

Machines of the type collected have been declared illegal by District Attorney Francis Collins, who based his opinion on a 1951 ruling by the State Attorney General.

THIS RULING has never been contested in the courts.

O. J. Wohlgemuth, chairman of the law enforcement committee, declined to comment on further action by the group and said it would be necessary to check with Granshaw, who is official spokesman.

Another member, however, indicated that interviews with the chiefs of police of each city will continue.

ment in Orinda, Moraga or Lafayette might have on the adjoining communities can easily be imagined.

"Yet organized separately, these regions could have little control of policies formulated by their individual governments.

"It would seem as if the communities bordering on Mt. Diablo Highway will soon be faced with a decision with many of the aspects of whether to hang together or to hang apart."

MORRISON HAS considerable background in government study. He studied at Bakersfield College, Westminster College, Mo., Harvard graduate school, where he obtained a degree in business administration, and received a bachelor's and master's degree in Public Administration from the University of California.

He is a candidate for his Ph. D. In addition, he spent a year with the Coro Foundation, working on planning and other phases of public administration.

He was executive secretary of the Alameda Citizens Advisory Committee in 1949, at which time it did a study of the revenue structure and set up new tax laws. A complete study of the organization and administration of the city was made and recommendations for wide revisions in the government were suggested, a substantial portion of which was adopted.

HE SERVED as management consultant for the Public Administration Service, a national management consulting firm, and worked as a consultant for Louis J. Kroeger and Associates, a consulting firm.

In 1950 he assumed his present position as executive director of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association.

Creighton, Baldwin, Kilpatrick Picked by GOP Screening Committee

The Republican Screening Committee Wednesday night recommended three men to the Republican Council which will choose one as a candidate for Congressman for the Sixth Congressional District.

The three men are Joseph Creighton of Orinda, John Baldwin of Martinez and Henry Kilpatrick of Vallejo.

The Council will meet Thursday, February 11 at Alhambra High School in Martinez at 7:30 p.m. to make its choice, which is unofficial. However, most candidates have agreed not to run if they are not chosen by this group.

The Screening Committee, composed of 38 members from all parts of the county and a portion of Solano County, screened Edgar J. Manske, former football coach at the University of California, Joseph Creighton and Daryl Hutchins of Walnut Creek Tuesday night.

Last week they screened Baldwin, Kilpatrick, Jack Merchant of Crockett and V. Craig Bull of Walnut Creek.

The three candidates were picked without rating and the decision was unanimous. A spokesman said the committee "was very impressed with the high caliber of all the candidates."

After recommendations had been made, the committee under the direction of Don Bonar unanimously endosred Assemblyman Don Doyle for reelection on the basis of his "splendid record."

The candidate selected by the Council will receive only the pre-primary election support of the councils, which are unofficial. State law prohibits pre-primary support by the official political party, represented by the Central Committee.

Condon Denies Communist Affiliation, Replies to AEC, Velde Accustations

Congressman Robert L. Condon of Walnut Creek this week testified under oath that he is not and never has been a member of the communist party.

Appearing at his own request before the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee in Washington on Tuesday and Wednesday, Condon replied to accusations made before the Velde Committee last month and also to reasons listed by the AEC why he should have been banned from a Nevada atom test last year.

HE ADMITTED attending an Oakland meeting in 1948, but denied, as Charles Blodgett of Chicago had charged before the House Un - American Committee last month, that this meeting was a closed communist affair.

Condon described the meeting as a session between Democratic leaders in Central California and the leaders of a newly formed Independent Progressive Party. The Democrats were trying to persuade the new party to avoid running a congressional candidate, he said.

Questioned in detail by several members of the committee, Condon said he never tried to find out whether his former law partners, Robert L. Truehaft and Bertran Edises, were communists.

SENATOR ANDERSON, Democrat from New Mexico, said it seemed strange that Condon didn't look into his partners' political beliefs since the red charges against them were made an issue in Condon's campaign for reelection.

Another Democrat, Senator Pastore of Rhode Island, asked Condon what he would do if he were a member of the AEC and learned a prospective witness of a secret weapon had a close relationship with two men whose views were "along communist lines."

Condon said he couldn't give a categorical answer.

He had prepared a statement in reply to 13 points listed in a letter from former AEC Chairman Gordon Dean in June, 1953, as reosons why he had been banned from the atom test.

IN HIS REPLIES, Condon admitted he had been a member of two organizations that have been cited as communist fronts.

He was a member of the American League for Peace and Democracy from 1938 to 1939 before it was branded as subversive by the attorney general and a member of the National Lawyers Guild along with other prominent attorneys, Condon said, adding he no longer belongs to the latter organization.

His denial of communist party membership came after Chairman W. Sterling Cole, a Republican congressman from New York, asked the question.

CONDON WAIVED all of his legal immunities as a member of the house in order to appear before the committee.

His point by point replies to charges listed in Dean's letter were as follows:

1. He never admitted that he or his wife, the former Eleanor Kierulff, were communists and had invited other students to attend communist party meetings while they were attending the University of California.

2. AN OAKLAND LAW FIRM of which he once was a member (Edises, Truehaft and Condon) did defend "isolated communists for alleged infractions of local law," but when the CIO split in 1948, he left the law firm "and took with me most of the militantly anti-communist locals." Condon said he had no knowledge that the firm administered a "community party rotating bail firm" as reported to Dean.

3. He denied that he was an "old-time acquaintance" of Oleta O'Connor Yates, state secretary of the communist party, who was convicted of conspiracy to advocate the overthrow of the United States Government by force and is now appealing, although he admitted meeting Mrs. Yates on two or three occasions in 1941 and 1942. He said he has no recollection of ever having met Archie Brown, communist party candidate for governor of California in 1946.

4. He was not restricted to non-sensitive duties while in the armed forces. He said he served as a combat infantryman in Europe at his own request and received two battle stars and the Silver Star for gallantry in action.

5. HE HAD NEVER described Russia as "a true democracy" although in 1943, when the Russians were fighting the Nazis, "in common with most Americans I was happy with the Russian victories and may have made statements to this effect."

6. He had been a member of the American League for Peace and Democracy from 1938 to 1939, prior to the time the attorney general branded it as subversive.

7. He is not a member of the Association Nacional Mexican-Americana, although he attended functions of the organization while running for Congress.

8. IN COMMON WITH OTHER lawyers, he protested the contempt sentences given attorneys for communist functionaries on trial in New York, although he never "expressed sympathy for the 11 defendants."

9. He protested imposing loyalty oaths on faculty members of the University of California, a position that was "ultimately agreed to by the board of regents at the university."

10. He has no recollection of having been a member of the committee holding a reception in Oakland on January 31, 1948, for Lillian Fortier, new executive secretary of the Civil Right Congress. He said he has not recollection of ever having met Lillian Fortier.

11. HE HAD NO KNOWLEDGE of his former law firm having been trustee of the Civil Rights Congress bail fund in the Oakland area.

12. He could not have been a sponsor of Louis Richardson, candidate for the Richmond City Council in 1947 when Richardson was "reported" to be a communist, because "I have never lived in Richmond." He said he once represented Richardson in a divorce action.

13. He was once a member of the National Lawyers' Guild but no longer is, and at the time he was a member many other prominent attorneys were also members.

COLE PUT INTO the record a letter to Condon last August 1 in which he had declared that the committee felt the AEC was "fully justified" in barring Condon from the atomic test.

He said the committee had no intention of investigating Condon and said the committee does not have any intention of making a finding.

Acalanes Adult Education Units Now Expanding

The two sections in silk screen printing Acalanes Evening High School are being expanded to include the processes of linoleum block printing and stenciling, as well as the silk screen processes.

Both the Tuesday morning section at 39 Ardilla Court in Orinda and the Wednesday evening section at Acalanes are still open for late registrants.

OTHER CLASSES that are still accepting late registrants include: art, metal and leathercraft, which meets Monday evenings at Acalanes; jewelry making, which meets Tuesday evenings at Acalanes; and ceramics which meets Thursday evenings.

The textile weaving class which has been meeting on Monday evenings only, has been expanded into two section, one from 9 a.m. to noon Mondays, and the other from 7 to 10 p.m. Monday evenings. This class meets at the home of the instructor, Mrs. Lilly Dale King, 1176 Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette.

A BEGINNING section in Conversational Spanish will be added to the schedule and will be held on Thursday evenings and is in addition to the advanced section now being held on Monday nights.

Among those proposed classes that are nearly ready to begin is the one in photography. This course is planned to stress the practical side of photography.

It will endeavor to lead the student through the fundamental principles to a working knowledge of picture making in all its phases. Starting with a general introduction, the course will show how to take a picture, develop the negative and make the print. It will include composition, portraiture, flash shots, color photography, and criticisms of pictures taken by the students for the various assignments.

Highway Group's Board to Discuss Road Relocation

Future relocation of San Pablo Dam Road in Orinda will be discussed Tuesday night by the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation Board when directors meet at the home of Edward M. Rowland, 1367 Pleasant Hill Road, Lafayette, at 8 oclock.

This was announced this week by Chairman Charles R. Nelson.

Other topics on the agenda, according to Nelson, are appointment of directors to committees and plans for the 1954 membership drive.

COMMITTEES INCLUDE: Liaison with the District IV office of the State Division of Highways engineers in San Francisco; liaison with the County Highway Department; rapid transit; Shepherd Canyon; trucking operations; advanced planning.

Attendance of all 15 directors, to assist in planning federation work for the year, was urged by Nelson.

Nelson informed the Orinda Association Board Monday night at Orinda School library:

"AS CHAIRMAN OF the Highway Federation, I can say we'll push just as strongly for proper relocation of San Pablo Dam Road as we did for construction of the Orinda Interchange."

Nelson is an Orinda resident. He and Horace Breed are Orinda Association representatives on the federation board. Breed was with Nelson at the association board session.

THE HIGHWAY FEDERATION chairman's statement about the federation attitude regarding San Pablo Dam Road was made after Association President Zach Montgomery requested him to tell the federation board of the association directors' belief that the road should be relocated behind Orinda Village and the creek, from the vicinity of Miner Road and El Toyonal to a point south of Orinda School, where the Interchange ramp will end, when the road is widened to four lanes under the county road bond program.

Jewish Services Tonight at 8:30

The Contra Costa Jewish Community Center will hold religious services tonight at 8:30 at the Center building, formerly Planter's Dock, just west of Lafayette.

Services will be conducted by Rabbi Harry Levenberg of the Richmond Jewish Community Center. Naming ceremonies will be performed for two infants whose mothers, Mesdames Joseph Katzburg and Irving L. Leiber, will act as hostesses during the Oneg Shabbat following the services.

Sewer District Puts Bond Issue Wheels Turning

Directors of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District authorized the appointment of Kaiser and Company of San Francisco, a legal firm, to work up a prospectus for the proposed bond issue.

Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington and Sutcliffe of San Francisco were retained to pass on the legality of the bond issue. They will also issue a legal opinion on the bonds, if and when they are issued, to assure buyers of the order of the district.

IF THE BOND ISSUE is successful, Kaiser and Company will present the bonds for bid.

Kaiser and Company will charge $3500 if the issue is successful, $1750 if it fails; Orrick $2 per $100 if successful, 50 cents per $1000 if unsuccessful.

In other action directors set a tentative price on the present property at 1622 Mt. Diablo Boulevard of between $70,000 and $80,000.

It was estimated that a new site large enough to contain a corporation yard and vehicle sheds, plus the erection of suitable offices, could be purchased for about $77,000.

ENGINEER Gerry Horstkotte Jr. reported that the Orinda Pumping Station overflowed into the San Pablo Reservoir of East Bay Municipal Utility District during the last rain, and that the newly-installed chlorination equipment worked satisfactorily.

Representatives of the County Health Department and EBMUD were at the pumping plant to check the action.

Horstkotte was authorized to purchase a new calculator and to draw up plans for the installation of a pump and filter at the treatment plant.

POSSIBLE CONSIDERATION of a sewer rental fee to supplement the present connection fee or replace it was discussed, but no action was taken.

Magill Names Red Cross Chairmen

Appointment of a fund drive chairman and a Junior Red Cross chairman has been announced by Mt. Diablo American Red Cross Chairman Irving Magill.

Don Mitchell, Walnut Creek bank executive, will head the March fund drive and Mrs. A. Vay Shelton of Walnut Creek will head the junior unit.

In connection with his appointment, Mitchell urged residents to "Join—And Serve" in the drive.

Mrs. Shelton succeeds Mrs. Stanley Johnson of Orinda in the job of keeping the junior program up with the expanding local school population.

Commuters Get Bus Loading Standard

The Public Utilities Commission and Greyhound Bus Company have agreed upon a load standard for busses operating in Contra Costa County and San Francisco, it was announced this week.

The Commuters Association also commented that the PUC has conferred with the Highway Division engineers and Greyhound to determine a stop for Orinda passengers during construction of the over pass.

A solution has been worked out, they said, to take care of passengers for the next year.

The loading agreement states "Total seats provided during morning and evening peak periods on each of the two lines shall equal or exceed total number of passengers presenting themselves for transportation at the designated checking points."

Designated peak periods are from 6:30 a.m. to 8:40 a.m. and from 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday.

First concrete result of the load standard was the addition of a bus Wednesday on the Concord - San Francisco run both morning and evening.

THE MAXIMUM LOAD points where checks are to be made are at Orinda Crossroads for morning peak loads, at Folson and Essex streets in San Francisco and Twentieth and Broadway in Oakland for evening peak loads.

John E. McKirahan, president of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association was consulted and agreed that the provisions meet with his approval.

The load standard agreement is intended to assure future adjustments in scheduling to provide adequate service. When the total number of passengers increases during the peak periods so that the number exceeds the number of seats, a bus must be added to maintain the load standards.

IT WAS EXPLAINED that this does not mean that every bus shall provide one seat per passenger, but that over a five day test period at the designated points during peak periods, the total number of seats shall equal the total number of passengers during the specified peak hours.

Both the State Commission staff and Greyhound are to make independent traffic checks whenever it appears necessary to test load standards.

In a recent letter to R. E. Mittelstaedt, Commission president, McKirahan requested establishment of the load standard and was assuerd that the commission was "working toward the solution of your problem."

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

SHE FLEW THROUGH the air with the greatest of east
Pushed and blown by a vigorous breeze
She almost lit on a gentleman's knees
But finally regained her dignities

Explanation: Mrs. Lester Foley was having dinner at the Lodge the evening of the big blow—you remember the Saturday night of the Bing Crosby tournament.

A rough way to eat a meal, what?

They were seated by a view window on the ocean side and someone decided that it was pretty warm and a window should be opened. A sudden terrific guest just fresh—hm—indeed—fresh off the ocean caught Mrs. Foley unawares and whisked her, several salt and pepper shakers, and the better part of somebody's salad right smack across the dining room.

Four gentlemen came to her rescue, helped her reestablish her decorum and, when she reappeared several diners asked for her autograph!

Some came to swing and sway (dancing); Others had vital things to say (speech making); There were also those who wanted to eat (gustatory); But the main idea was just to meet (annual meeting); The ladies, like aways, were handsomely dressed (same old deal); The gents, like always, were mighty impressed (also same old deal); The ladies were permitted in the inner sanctum (men's locker room); And demanding one like it was the way they thanked 'em (ladies showers need remodeling).

THEN CAME THE meeting and members of the Board (Messrs. Lloyd O'Connell, John McDonnell, George Hauerken, Donald Phipps, Henry Gentry, John Traynor and Ritchie Smith); delighted all with the points they had scored. (1) Removed oversized hills on links (2) erected new snack bar on eleventh tee (3) did something fabulously fiscal but we couldn't understand it (4) heated the swimming pool (5) put glass doors on the gentlemen's showers (6) put in a new tile floor in the terrace room (7) put in new windows in the terrace room (8) repainted same (terrace room).

So, off with the old (Messrs. O'Connel and Gentry of whom the members are very proud)

And on with the new (Messrs. McDonnell, Walter Boysen and William McNevin of whom great things are expected). Gifts divine were rendered (outdoor barbecue and outdoor golf bag); As President O'Connell surrendered (gratefully and with great dignity).

Now we shift to a quick shuffle

Then to the music of Gordon Heche (you should have seen him beating the floor with his feet—what rhythm).

They jittered, sambad and—you'd never "gueshe" (we don't know what the other dance was but if there be such a thing as a Dixieland jazz two step that was it).

Before they knew it the evening was over (same old deal); They all went home—whistled to Rover (same old deal); Put out the cat and locked the doors (running out of parenthetical remarks).

For miles around there was nothing but snores (ran out).

EXPLANATION: The annual meeting of the Orinda Golf Club was held on Saturday evening, January 23. Cocktails were served by courtesy of the club. In our limited knowledge it was the largest shindig of like kind so far held. Highly successful.

All you dogs pay attention

New resident brings honor to Orinda. Miss Tassy Banister of Camino Lenada, went to the Golden Gate Kennel Club 44th All Breed Dog Show in San Francisco last Saturday. When asked to perform she held her lovely head high in the air, her sweeping tail at just the proper angle, and passed the judges like a prancing pony. Now that was pretty good for a girl whose only training has been between the front door and the mail box on the end of a leash. Result: She brought home the blue ribbon for first in the Novice Class. Cheers to sassy Tassy, a seven month old fawn colored Pekingese belonging to Miss Marlene Banister.

THE BRUCE HOWARDS ARE planning to move into their new home on Miner Road next month.

The Explorer Scouts spent a weekend recently skiing at Phillips Resort. Twenty-eight boys and girls were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Abe Doty, Ernest Spiegl, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hall and Messrs. Joseph Sheaff, Paul Oakley and Alfred Johnson.

THE SKI CLUB from Acalanes went to Twinings Lodge at Dodge Ridge last weekend. Skiing must be fun but those of us who stayed home last weekend needed a boat—as for instance:

The title of our next yarn is "Steaks in the Bay" or "Has Something New Been Added?" If you recollect last Saturday it rained, poured and blew.

I think I'd like this kind of fishing

NEW BOAT OWNER Paul Ammen and son Ky invited Robert Spott and son Robbie to take a little fishing trip in the Bay. They were gone all day and were so wet when they got home that all they could say was they had had a wonderful time and had cooked steaks for lunch. Now we have never heard of anyone fishing for steaks in the Bay so is it possible that the rain was so heavy they were cruising wrong end up and couldn't tell the difference?

YOUNG MAN ABOUT TOWN—Rhode Russel. Born in Rhodesia, Africa, and he is quite a lion hunter. Royal blood in his veins—ancestors all Lords and Ladies and now he lives with the James Russells in Sleepy Hollow.

He was a gift to them about two years ago and arrived from Africa by air freight—collect. He is a loving creature and there aren't many hereabouts like him—two in Marin County and a few in San Francisco. What is he? Why, he is an African Rhodesian, Ridgeback Hound, the color of a lion, the size of a Dalmatian and wears the ears of a beagle.

Fancy how important you could act if you owned a beastie like that—and maybe you can if you want to—they are considering selling him.

That is all.

Third Graders Prove Safety Sense

The third grade class of Mrs. Mary Kimball at Glorietta School is safety conscious.

As a class exercise, the children composed the following story, illustrated it, and presented it to each class in the school.

"Mrs. Kimball's third grade class went around to the Glorietta School to show the children safety rules. On Monday, January 11, they went to the first, second and third grades, and on Tuesday, January 12 they went to the fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

"THEY DID IT because there were too many accidents around the school.

"The children made some pictures to show what the rules meant. The pictures were about what to do and what not to do. First they made the pictures with chalk and then they colored the pictures with crayons.

"They chose helpers to hold the pictures and to point to the pictures while other helpers said the rules. All the children in Mrs. Kimball's class were in the program.

"HERE ARE SOME of the rules that were made:

"Keep your hands to yourself. Do stunts on the stunt bar. Don't do stunts on the traveling bars. Don't go outside of the fence. Play with balls on the lower field .Sit down and slide down the slides. Wait on the third step for your turn. Share all of the equipment."

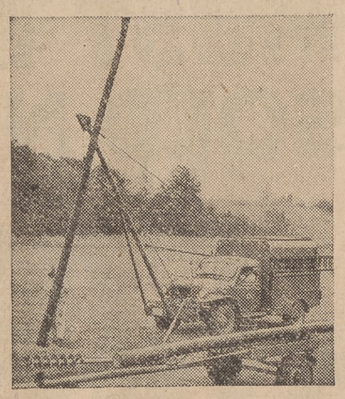
WHAT'S DOING

"Triple-duty" truck speeds pole-setting



Telephone poles now go up faster than ever, thanks to the specially designed truck at right. Equipped with a fast rotary digger, a long arm, and a winch line, the "triple-duty" truck digs pole holes, sets in the poles, and straightens them . . . all in a jiffy. This versatile vehicle also has many other jobs, including salvaging used wire on its special reel. We're using it in many places throughout the Pacific West today. Developments like the "triple-duty" truck help us provide you with more service, good service, at the lowest possible cost. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

You Can Call All the Way to New York City for Only $2.50 plus tax

More and more people here in the Pacific West are finding out what a value long distance telephone service is . . . to keep contact with friends and relatives in distant places, to get business affairs handled quickly.

One reason — it costs so little to call. You can now talk for three minutes, day station call, all the way to New York for only $2.50 plus tax. And your calls over shorter distances—like Chicago or Salt Lake, or up and down the Coast, naturally are even lower.

And here's a tip about long distance calling. You'll be surprised at how much you can say in three minutes if you'll prepare your notes beforehand and make notes while you talk.

Today, a long distance call is surely one of the best buys you can make. Pacific Telephone.

When you have a series of calls to make...

...it's a good idea to leave a few minutes between calls, instead of making one right after another. Spacing your calls gives other people a chance to reach you. And the calls you receive are often just as important as the calls you make.

Diablo Devils Invade Don Court Tonight

Rivalry Keen as Traditional Foes Try for Victory

The Acalanes Don basketball teams face the Mt. Diablo Devils tonight in the Acalanes gym, and on the basis of statistics the Devils reign as favorites in both the Varsity and Bee contests.

But the fact remains that Diablo has always had its problems on the Dons' hardwood.

Festivities will start with the Bee game at 7 o'clock.

The only league Varsity game the Devils have ever won on the Acalanes court occurred last season, the most disastrous in Acalanes' history, when the Dons won but one game.

THE DON VARSITY this year has played some fine ball, despite a 3-3 record.

Mt. Diablo has three wins and two losses to date. In winning, the Diablo team has looked invincible, but in losing looked anything but that.

FROM HERE it appears unlikely that the Dons or the Devils will cop the pennant, but any time Acalanes and Diablo meet up it's the "big one," based on traditional rivalry plus the fact that both will be shooting to end up in the top division.

Don Landrum is the top scorer for the Devils, but he turned an ankle in last week's John Swett game and is a doubtful performer.

ACALANES WILL definitely be without the service of its ace pivot man, Bob Gray, who has his ankle in a cast as the result of a cracked ankle bone, a memo of the Albany tilt last week.

The Dons, like the Devils, have been in-and-out performers. On occasion they show flashes of brilliance, only to slip into mediocre play at crucial times, a large part of which is accounted for by the squad's relative inexperience in team play.

Against Pittsburg the Dons scored 57 points, and a repeat offensive effort plus a wee bit of better defensive play against fast-breaking tatics could put the charges of Coach Jean Ridley back in the win column.

IN THE BEE game, the edge goes to the Little Devils, who are hot on the trail of the Pittsburg five that leads the league with an undefeated record.

The Little Devils have but a lone loss to date, whereas the Don Babes have five losses, although three of them have been by two-point margins.

The Don Babes are a fast-improved bunch, and with home court it's not out of the realm of possibility that they could cop the win over their red-shirted rivals.

Games Scheduled

Acalanes' football schedule for the 1954 season is now completed with league adoption of a setup after several weeks of deliberation and many hours of trying to work things out to everyone's satisfaction.

The Dons will play three practice games, opening with Piedmont September 17 at Acalanes, traveling to Tracy September 24 and playing Alhambra High at Martinez October 1.

LEAGUE PLAY opens October 8 with the Dons hosting the Diablo Devils.

Next in line are Pittsburg at Pittsburg October 15, and Antioch at Antioch October 22.

THE DONS RETURN home October 29, when they tackle Pleasant Hill.

SPORTS

Pittsburg Fives Defeat Acalanes

The Acalanes basketball teams had a long ride home Tuesday when they returned from Pittsburg after dropping a double-header that afternoon.

The Don Varsity had enough points to win most games but the Pitt Pirates took advantage of a fast break to cop the win 69-57 in a game that found both clubs hotter than a dime store pistol on the shooting but not so tough on the defense.

Pittsburg's Bees defeated the Don Babes 31-20.

Pitt's Varsity started off with a blazing burst as it jumped to a 17-9 first quarter lead.

It maintained the pace in the second stanza when its lads hit for 18 more and a halftime total of 35, while the Dons trailed with 27.

In the third quarter, Pitt spurted ahead 41-29 in the opening minutes, only to have the Acalanes five put on a scoring rush to close the gap.

When the period ended, each had 14 points for the quarter, with Pitt still ahead 49-41.

IN THE FURIOUS final period, the Dons put on a scoring spree of their own, to tally 16 points.

But the Pirates scored time and again on fast break tatics that gave them layup scores, and they notched 20 points, and with it the win.

Knights Topple Both Ram Fives

The Las Lomas Knights finally registered a Varsity win in league basketball when they carved out a 40-31 victory at the expense of the Pleasant Hill Rams in a game played at Concord Tuesday afternoon.

Center Arne Lundquist was once again the Knights' big gun as he posted 18 points, while Guard Bob Lucas rgeistered 8 for the winning cause.

Guard Norm Frieborg, with 10, and Center Tom McMillin were top for the losers.

In the Bee game, Las Lomas took its second league win by toppling the Rams 44-39.

Knight Quintets

The Las Lomas Knights had a rough go of it last Friday night when Pittsburg proved to be an ungracious host and whipped the Walnut Creek quintets — 54-35 in the Varsity and 45-25 in the Bee tilt.

It was once again a case of too much manpower and experience for the Knights to handle.

IN THE VARSITY game, it was Pitt all the way. The Pirates took a 12-6 first quarter lead and were ahead 26-13 at the half.

In the second half, the Pirates coasted to the win and cleared the bench in the process.

Bulldogs Edge Dons, But Babes Win

The Acalanes fives traveled to Martinez last Friday night to meet up with Alhambra, and when the smoke of battle had cleared the scorebooks showed that the Acalanes Varsity had lost a heartbreaker overtime game to the Bulldogs, 42-41, while the Don Babes, playing their best game of the season, had emerged with a startling 29-17 win over the Bullpups.

In the Varsity game, which couldn't have been more exciting if it had followed a movie script, the Dons, minus Center Bob Gray, fought their hearts out and came within one point of upsetting the dope bucket.

Gray sidelined with a cracked ankle bone from the Albany game which will keep him out for a couple of weeks.

THAT NECESSITATED considerable shifting of team personnel, with John Conley being moved to the center slot, while Tim Freeman moved in at left forward.

Alhambra took a 14-13 first quarter lead, only to have the Dons hold the Bulldogs to one field goal and three free throws for a five-point second quarter total while the Acalanes five tallied four field goals and two charity tosses in the same period to go out in front, 23-19, at the halfway mark.

Fans were kept on their feet most of the second half as the two teams battled it out, with the Dons out in front at the end of the third quarter by a 28-27 margin.

Two Don players went out via the foul route in the fourth quarter. Bart Ferro was flagged down early in the period. Tim Freeman went out on his fifth personal in the closing minutes.

GOING INTO THE final seconds of play, the Dons trailed by two points. They tied the score when an Alhambra player interfered with the net on a long shot and the officials awarded the Dons two points.

That threw the game into an overtime, with the score knotted at 41-all.

In the overtime, the lone point came about when Alhambra's Charlie Tourville sank one of two free throws.

Buzz Ferrarese had two throws from the free throw line but the pressure was too great, and with it went the chances for the win, as the Dons were unable to tank one before time ran out.

THE GAME WAS a well-played one which found the Dons in a reversal of form as compared to the Albany game.

Conley turned in a top performance at center, while Red Jones played a bangup, all-around game as well as hitting the hoop for 14 points.

Jack Jordan of Alhambra took scoring honors with a total of 21 points.

They trailed 9-8 at the end of the first quarter, then jumped to the lead, 19-11, at the half.

It was the Don Babes the rest of the way as they threw up a rugged zone defense.

THE DON SCORING was well distributed, with four players tying for high with 6 points apiece.

Will Knights, Rams Be Polite Hosts Tonight?

The Las Lomas Knights play host to the John Swett Indians tonight, while the Pleasant Hill Rams entertain Albany at the Rams' temporary home court, the Mt. Diablo gym.

John Swett and Albany rule as definite favorites in both Varsity and Bee games, on the basis of the season's record.

BOTH LAS LOMAS and Pleasant Hill are handicapped by the lack of seniors but each on occasion has given indications of better days ahead by making the games much closer than expected and forcing more seasoned fives to an all-out effort.

Alhambra and Pittsburg play at the Martinez Pavilion tonight, while Antioch draws the bye.

NEXT TUESDAY afternoon it's as follows:

Tropical Foliage Plants Enjoy Living With People but Must Be Comfortable

TROPICAL FOLIAGE PLANTS enjoy living with people!

Temperature-wise, the range that proves comfortable for humans also pleases these plants. Below 55 degrees and above 90 degrees they will suffer. And they should not be allowed to remain near open windows at night, during winter.

These points, indicating tropical foliage plants' adaptability to the average household environment, are brought out by the California Association of Nurserymen, which adds that any convenient, complete fertilizer—liquid or dry—may be used to feed them, if you remember that they lead a sedentary life and cut recommended quantities in half.

THESE PLANTS REQUIRE varying degrees of light. The best rule is to permit them full light but not the direct rays of the sun. Consult your local nurseryman as to which plants will accept a dark corner and which will desire to be near a bright window.

Lack of humidity damages many indoor plants, especially in winter when artificial heating reduces humidity within the house. Moist gravel or moss in saucers beneath the plant container will help to correct this.

But a better way is to group plants in pots or containers so that moisture being evaporated from them will raise the humidity of surrounding air. Be sure to keep your house plants away from direct drafts, as heavy air circulation will cause excessive evaporation from the foliage.

FINALLY, WATERING requires most consideration. Keep your plants pleasantly moist.

Excessive water in a container will replace air in the soil to a point that root decay will result.

In large planters, check the soil to the bottom before adding water. For while plants that become too dry lose but a few leaves, a plant that becomes too wet loses its life. Fully 75 per cent of container plants die from drowning.

Christian Science Sermon -- 'Love'

"Love" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon read in the Churches of Christ, Scientist, at 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, Sunday. This sermon consists of references from the Bible and correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Among the readings from the Bible will be these verses from Romans: "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (8:38,39).

Science and Health: "This is the doctrine of Christian Science: that divine Love cannot be deprived of its manifestation, or object; that joy cannot be turned into sorrow, for sorrow is not the master of joy; that good can never produce evil; that matter can never produce mind nor life result in death" (p. 304).

Safety Sought for Tots in Cars

Tragedy metamorphosed phoenix-like into a force for public welfare has often occurred. The telling of it is always an inspiring story.

Latest example of it in our own area is the action of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Axtell of Concord. Their 2-year-old son, David Charles, was killed Christmas Eve when he fell out of the family car near Livermore after the right rear door had somehow been opened.

The grief-stricken parents are trying to prevent similar tragic accidents from happening to other families. Axtell, a salesman for a Walnut Creek furniture store, and Mrs. Axtell, a second grade teacher at Lafayette School, have been addressing many organizations in Central Contra Costa County, urging people to see that safety devices are placed on the inside of car doors so that the doors cannot be opened by children in the car.

The Axtells not only urge auto-owners to install such safety devices now — they also ask them to write their state legislators for legislation which would make that equipment a required part of each car before the car is sold.

In a recent letter to The SUN, Axtell made the following plea to parents:

"DON'T WAIT — DO IT NOW.

"Your children, I'm sure, are as dear to you as our 2-year-old boy was to us. Unbelievable as it seems to us now, our little son is gone forever from us.

"We were driving along the highway, happy and contented, loaded with presents for our relatives. Our little boy, who was sitting in my wife's lap, seemed to be getting sleepy, so my wife put him on a crib mattress on the back seat of our four-door sedan.

"A minute later, all of a sudden the back door flew open and our son was gone. He either fell out or was pulled out by the suction after opening the door.

"By the time we had stopped the car and run back, he was dead on the pavement.

"We knew he sometimes played with the door handles, but he had never opened the door before.

"If the inside handles had been removed or if safety devices had been installed, this accident might have been prevented.

"WE DIDN'T THINK IT WOULD HAPPEN TO US."

The Axtells' public-spiritedness in attempting to save the lives of other children, as the result of their own tragic loss, evokes the admiration, respect and gratitude of all of us.

Your Porchlight is the Signal

'Typical Home' To Be Open to Public Sunday

The Contra Costa Real Estate Board's home for the "Typical Family" will be open to the public for the first time Sunday, according to Lawrence Wallace, chairman of the Educational Committee.

The home is located at the southeast corner of Acalanes Road and Helmond Lane, Lafayette. It was built by Harold Smith of Walnut Creek, realtor, builder and board member.

The home will be open for 60 days from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily and will be shown by a different broker or salesman every day in order to give as many realtors as possible a chance to meet the buying public.

New Symphony Foundation Called Unique Opportunity

The formation of the San Francisco Symphony Foundation offers a unique cultural opportunity to families living in this general area, according to Mrs. Marshall A. Shapiro of Orinda, area chairman of the Foundation membership drive.

"It is," she said, "the beginning of a trend which will bring us and our children closer to the symphony. Given adequate support by persons in the area the foundation may unite the new modern suburban developments with the San Francisco Symphony."

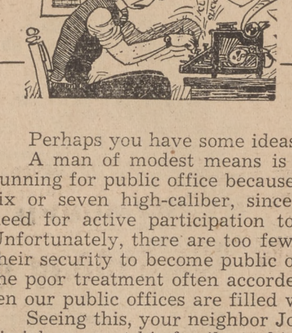
THE FOUNDATION DRIVE was officially opened Tuesday, with a concert and reception given at the Palace of the Legion of Honor in San Francisco. Drive workers from this area attended the Bay wide affair.

Those involved in the membership drive look forward to the day when local support will be adequate to justify the presentation of adult and childrens concerts on this side of the tunnel.

Foundation memberships are $10 per couple and include a special symphony concert, attendance at two symphony rehearsals, advance symphony program notes and a special end-of-season reception for symphony musicians and foundation members.

MRS. SHAPIRO stressed that foundation activities and symphony support were in no way in conflict with existing musical activities in the area, but a necessary addition to satisfy the cultural demands of the area.

Community chairmen are Mrs. Haywood Gathings, Orinda; Mrs. Charles J. Hart, Walnut Creek; and Mrs. Raymond Tolles of Lafayette.



Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

Perhaps you have some ideas on this difficult problem

A man of modest means is practically prohibited from running for public office because of campaign costs. I know six or seven high-caliber, sincere, able men, who see the need for active participation to improve our government. Unfortunately, there are too few citizens willing to sacrifice their security to become public officials and, in turn, receive the poor treatment often accorded politicians. Thus, too often our public offices are filled with second-rate officials.

Seeing this, your neighbor John Jones is willing to leave his job, support his family on his savings and even allot dollars to his campaign. Even then, can he run for Assembly, sheriff, Congress, county superintendent of schools, supervisor, district attorney or other offices to be filled in the coming elections?

The realistic answer is NO!

And here is why . . .

Theoretically, anyone meeting the requirements can run. But he can not become a candidate with a fair chance of winning without large financial backing — and this eliminates many, many excellent men.

Depending on varying circumstances (opposition, size of territory, organized machines, political atmosphere, experience and reputation, citizens' backing), a candidate would need at a minimum:

$12,000 to run for sheriff or district attorney.
$35,000 for Congress.
$6000 for Assembly.
$3000 for supervisor.

What chance does John Jones have to raise this kind of money? He can use "dirty" money offered him — but he won't. He could align himself with the established political machine. But he won't. If he's stubborn enough, he might try to campaign house-to-house without spending tremendous amounts. But this won't do the job.

The practical answer is he can't become a candidate.

Community action

A posible alternative is for an enlightened citizenry to actively and financially support a good candidate who tosses his hat into the ring. Or if a good candidate is not forthcoming, the community might go out and select one.

The Republicans of this area did this two years ago and are following a similar procedure now in the congressional race. They are filling a wonderful role in the political arena. They face a difficult task of selecting one out of seven good men who wish to run for Congress. This method has much merit — and also many disadvantages.

But back to the original question: Do you have any ideas how this problem can be solved?

Zoning headaches and planning

The need for a well-developed, countywide master plan has never been more dramatically emphasized than by current zoning problems.

Look at these controversies:

1. Application to rezone Pine Grove acreage at Orinda Crossroads for business.

2. Petition for less than one-acre lots in Happy Valley and the application to extend the business zone near the Super Saver Market.

3. Rezoning for business along beautiful Danville Highway. (Approval of a service station on the Johnson property.)

4. Promised rezoning via land use permit for a walnut plant next to Fair Oaks, the lovely home development in Pleasant Hill.

These and literally hundreds of other zoning cases should impress on our county officials the need for forthright action on the county master plan.

What has happened?

It has been about a year since $750,000 was allocated for the plan. Planners have been hired. Surveys are underway. Money has been spent. BUT the program is in a mess.

Months ago the County Planning League, Taxpayers' Association and other groups urged the Board of Supervisors to select by examination the most experienced man available as county director of planning. They were firmly rebuked by the supervisors.

One planning consultant was fired; another hired. The planning office is still filled with politics, dissention; money and time are wasting; zoning headaches continue. I predict that unless a capable director of planning is appointed soon, the county will spend its $750,000 without producing a good master plan.

What can you do about it? Write or phone your supervisor — H. L. "Jack" Cummings, Crockett, or Ray Taylor, Martinez.

Hats off to . . .

The SUN doffs its hat this week to those men and women who drive as slowly on all neighborhood streets as they do when they approach their own street. These drivers remember that other people's children can be injured or killed just as easily as their own.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The Chamber of Commerce of Lafayette feels obliged to comment on the recent letter of Mr. R. D. Buffington, because it seemed to find fault with everyone in Lafayette except the "I moved to country because" group.

This thinking is not shared by most people in Lafayette because the open-minded people of this area realize that, delightful as it would be to simply close the gate and say, "Sorry, we're full up, those coming later will have to wait for a vacancy or go elsewhere," it is impossible to do so.

There are and will be more homes being built, more stores, more cars, more traffic, more children — and that is as it should be. We Americans are strong because of this expanding economy.

IN THIS COUNTY, which is perhaps now, and will continue to be for many years to come, one of the fastest-growing areas in the United States, there is great need for the M. H. Stanleys and Mel Nielsens who have the vision and courage to look to the future.

Those of us who know these men intimately know of their untiring effort in behalf of the community, the many nights and days away from home and office that these men devote to building a community, and all without pay, if you please.

Mr. Buffington, it must be remembered that there are people in this community who have been here — both in business and community planning — when Rosedale Avenue was a pear orchard.

THESE PEOPLE were planning for a community and in fact laid the groundwork so that there would be facilities to make a modern home in the country possible — water, sewers, utilities, schools and all the necessities for modern living, which, of course, include the newspaper, the stores and the bus depot.

It would be a wonderful innovation in newspaper editorializing for the paper to print all issue that we favor in the most beautiful English prose — and those that we oppose in Sanskrit or Siamese, but I am sure that even these would be translated by the opposition.

There is no person in the Chamber of Commerce who could conceivably be described as a monied interest or who would wilfully destroy good zoning in Lafayette.

Quite the contrary, the rezoning applications that have been endorsed by the Chamber of Commerce have been those that we feel are entirely logical expansions that improve service and provide better shopping and parking facilities to the community.

THE FAST TRAFFIC, congestion and poor parking facilities on Mt. Diablo Boulevard have created a need for certain changes if proper service facilities are to be provided.

We cannot look at Lafayette as a static area where everything shall remain status quo. There are many major changes that will have to be made, and there will be, I am convinced, resistance from the groups and persons who will not accept progress—who want narrow streets, no curbstones, no lights, no sidewalks, — but who want the highest price tag in the county on their house, and with the lowest tax rate.

Somewhere along the line there will have to be compromise. The Chamber of Commerce of Lafayette is interested in this area as a community where the activities and services offered shall be of the highest standard obtainable.

THIS COMMUNITY has an economic as well as home life. Many of the members of the Chamber of Commerce have chosen Lafayette for their business or profession and also their home. It cannot be assumed that they do not know what they want if in any way their decisions diverge from those described by Mr. Buffington.

Sor can it be termed conclusive evidence that any plan is bad because of a 60-4 negative vote at any protest meeting.

It might be noted by Mr. Buffington that 60 no's are less than one-tenth of one per cent of the people in Lafayette, and for another view, I suggest that he obtain a copy of The SUN wherein was published the telephone interviews made by The SUN staff concerning the Moraga venture.

The tenor of these was predominantly "We want more and better places to shop."

For a healthy and vigorous independent community,

FRED WAGNER,
President, Lafayette

What They Say . . .

How Do Store Hours Fit your Schedule?

How convenient are the hours that your stores keep? Do you find that when you need that extra bottle of pills, or that loaf of bread, that the stores are closed?

Would you like to see some changes made?

These were questions that The SUN had in mind this week when it phoned local residents to ask "Are the hours of local stores convenient for you? What changes would you suggest?"

Here are the comments, which speak well for our local merchants.

"THEY'RE ALL OK," said Mrs. John A. Jeffrey Jr., 16 La Plaza Drive, Orinda. "I have started to shop locally now, but I didn't used to . . . it's easier. I like the hours, but it would be easier if there were some kind of bus from the Village to the Crossroads."

"THEY ARE ADEQUATE all the way around for me," said H. O. Faber of 115 Arlene Drive in Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Dorothy Green of 131 Glen Court in Walnut Creek replied, "I guess they are."

Ralph Johanson, Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, said "I have found the hours quite convenient, but I'm away a lot of the time and they wouldn't be too much of a problem for me.

"I'm sure they are fine for Mrs. Johanson, though."

"I THINK THEY are convenient," said Mrs. Allan Johnson, Moraga Road, Lafayette. "I like the Friday night openings if it pays the stores, but sometimes I don't feel like going out in the evenings after I've once settled down."

"YES, THEY ARE," was the reply of Eva M. Belanger of 537 Patterson Boulevard in Pleasant Hill who had no changes to suggest.

Mrs. Fred Cunnison of 250 Pleasant View Drive in Pleasant Hill also answered, "I think they're fine as they are."

"I FIND THE hours quite convenient," said Norman A. Jarrett, 6 Bonita Lane, Orinda. "I get home about in time to catch the stores all right. My only trouble is the bank . . . that's pretty hard."
